

#ProphetForAll Campaign
20 Ideas to Connect with People of Other Faiths
Building Friendships Through the Universal Message of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ

The Prophet Muhammad ﷺ built relationships before delivering a message. He met people with kindness, listened to them, served them, respected them and won their hearts through his character.

The #ProphetForAll Campaign invites every Muslim to follow this beautiful example by building bridges of friendship, trust and understanding with people of all faiths.

1. Invite a Neighbour Home

Invite your non-Muslim neighbour for tea, dinner or a family gathering.
A shared meal often begins a lifelong friendship.

2. Celebrate Eid-e-Milad Together

Share sweets, food or small gifts with your friends, neighbours and colleagues from other faiths.

Celebrate together and explain why this day is special.

3. Organize a Masjid Parichay

Invite people to visit your local mosque.

Explain:

- What is a Masjid?
- Why do Muslims pray?
- What is Zakat?
- What is the message of Islam?

Allow them to ask questions freely.

4. Gift the Life of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ

Present a simple book, booklet or children's publication on the life and teachings of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Knowledge removes misconceptions.

5. Visit Them Instead of Waiting

Visit schools...

Offices...

Hospitals...

NGOs...

Resident Associations...

Professional Groups...

Take the message to people instead of waiting for them to come.

6. Organize Small Friendship Meetings

Arrange informal tea meetings with

- Teachers
- Doctors
- Journalists

- Lawyers
- Businessmen
- Students
- Women
- Youth

Small groups create meaningful conversations.

7. Invite Them to Community Service

Serve together.

Blood Donation.

Tree Plantation.

Cleanliness Drive.

Hospital Visit.

Food Distribution.

Service creates stronger bonds than speeches.

8. Visit Hospitals Together

Take fruits or flowers to patients.

Pray for their recovery.

Offer help to attendants.

Compassion speaks every language.

9. Honour Community Heroes

Meet and appreciate

- Police Personnel
- Doctors
- Nurses
- Teachers
- Sanitation Workers
- Security Guards
- Fire Brigade Staff

Offer flowers, appreciation letters or simple gifts.

10. Organize an Interfaith Dialogue

Instead of debates...

Organize conversations.

Listen more.

Respect differences.

Celebrate common values.

11. Invite Schools and Colleges

Invite nearby schools and colleges to

- Seerah Lectures
- Exhibitions
- Peace Meetings
- Cultural Programs
- Environment Activities

Young minds build tomorrow's society.

12. Create a 'Know Your Muslim Neighbour' Program

Invite families to spend time together.

Discuss culture.

Food.

Festivals.

Values.

Shared experiences remove fear.

13. Celebrate Universal Human Values

Instead of focusing on differences, discuss:

- Compassion
- Honesty
- Justice
- Family Values
- Respect for Parents
- Care for Neighbours
- Service to Humanity

These values unite everyone.

14. Start a Community Peace Circle

Organize monthly neighbourhood meetings where people from different faiths discuss local issues and work together to solve them.

15. Build Friendships Through Social Media

Share inspiring stories.

Introduce good people from different communities.

Highlight positive examples of harmony.

Promote hope—not hate.

16. Organize a Public Exhibition

Display attractive panels on

- Prophet Muhammad ﷺ
- Human Rights
- Women
- Environment
- Education
- Charity
- Peace

Keep the exhibition open to everyone.

17. Invite Questions

Create an "Ask About Islam" or "Ask About Prophet Muhammad ﷺ" session where people can ask honest questions in a respectful environment.

Dialogue removes misconceptions.

18. Create Joint Community Projects

Work together on

- Blood Donation
- Medical Camps

- Environmental Campaigns
- Educational Support
- Disaster Relief
- Community Kitchens

Shared service builds lasting relationships.

19. Stay Connected Beyond Rabi-ul-Awwal

Do not let the relationship end with one event.

Exchange contact details.

Wish each other on important occasions.

Meet regularly.

Continue the friendship throughout the year.

20. Become an Ambassador of the Prophet ﷺ

Your smile...

Your honesty...

Your patience...

Your compassion...

Your humility...

Your service...

may become the first introduction someone has to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Let your character speak before your words.

Golden Principles of Outreach

Every interaction should be based on:

-  Respect before discussion.
 -  Friendship before invitation.
 -  Listening before speaking.
 -  Service before explanation.
 -  Humanity before differences.

Remember...

People may forget our speeches.

People may forget our events.

But they will never forget how we made them feel.

Let every meeting leave behind greater respect, stronger friendship and a better understanding of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ.

Campaign Message

One Muslim.

One Friend from Another Faith.

One Meaningful Conversation.

One Act of Kindness.

One Stronger India.

"The greatest introduction to Prophet Muhammad ﷺ is a Muslim whose character reflects his teachings."
